

Professor dr. Diana Elena DUMITRAS
Chancellor for Research at Department of Economic Sciences
Academic topics: Statistics; Applied research methods and techniques; International Agribusiness Marketing
E-mail: ddumitras@usamvcluj.ro
Office: H86 Horticulture Pavilion

Date and place of birth: 12.07.1979, Cluj-Napoca, Romania

I. Education:

University studies:

1997-2002: USAMV Cluj-Napoca, College of Horticulture, Sp. Economic Engineering in Agriculture
2002-2004: University of Nevada, Reno, SUA, Master of Science in Resource and Applied Economics (recogn. Romanian MECT: Master in Applied Economics),

PhD studies:

2008: PhD in Agronomy/ Management and Marketing in Agriculture, USAMV Cluj-Napoca

Scholarships:

2002-2004: Full graduate assistantship; University of Nevada, Reno, SUA; Dept. Resource Economics

Areas of specialization:

2004: Human Participants Protection Education for Research Teams, US National Institutes of Health
2007: Agricultural Advisory Trainers (MAKIS), Danish Agricultural Advisory Service
2007: Management of European Projects, USAMV Cluj-Napoca
2015: Human Research, Social/Behavioral Investigators & Key Personnel, CITI Program

I. Academic experience:

2018-present: Professor, Faculty of Horticulture, Department of Economic Sciences: Statistics, Applied research methods and techniques, International agribusiness marketing
2005-2018: Assistant, Lecturer, Associate professor, Faculty of Horticulture: Farm management, Statistics, Econometrics, Research methods in tourism, International Agribusiness Marketing Project management.
2002-2004: Teaching and research assistant, Department of Resource Economics, University of Nevada, Reno, SUA

II. Research domains of interest:

Rural development, Natural resources and environmental economics, Consumer behavior

IV. Professional affiliations:

2016-present: Member Executive Committee in European Society for Agricultural and Food Ethics (EurSafe)
2012-present: Member Horticulture and Forestry Society from Transylvania (SHST);
2012-present: Member European Association of Environmental and Resource Economics (EAERE);
2018-present: Member Slow Food International

V. Significant achievements:

Books: 11

Scientific papers: 34 ISI, 64 BDI

Research grants: Director of 2 grants: CNCSIS TD 385 (2007-2008) and PNII-RU PD 271 UEFISCSU (2010-2012). Member in 15 research projects: HNV-Link (H2020, 2016-2019); SustainFarm (EraNet, 2016-2019); Graxing4Agroecology (Horizon Europe, 2022-2025)

October, 2022

Signature,
Prof. dr. Diana Elena Dumitras